هُوَ الَّذِي بَعَثَ فِي الْأُمِّيِّينَ رَسُولًا مِّنْهُمْ يَتْلُوا عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتِهِ وَ
يُزَكِّيهِمْ وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتَابَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَإِنْ كَانُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ لَفِي
ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٦٢﴾

He it is Who has raised among the Unlettered people a Messenger from among themselves who recites unto them His Signs, and purifies them, and teaches them the Book and wisdom, although they had been, before, in manifest misguidance; {62:3}

Sayings of The Holy Prophet (SAW)

Abdullah ibn Masood (ra) reported that the Prophet (SAW) said;

“This Qur’ān is the Banquet of Allah, so take as much as you can from His banquet. Indeed, this Qur’ān is the Rope of Allah, and it is the clear Light and (is the effective) Healing. It is a protection for the one who clings to it and a rescue for the one who follows it. It is not crooked and so puts things straight. Its wonders do not cease. It does not wear out with repetition. So recite it, for Allah will reward you for the recitation of every letter...

{”Mustadrak al-Hakim no. 2040}

Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad
Qadiani عليه السلام
The Promised Messiah

The Holy Qur'an is not matchless merely on account of the beauty of its composition, but is matchless on account of all its excellences which it claims to comprise and that is the truth, for whatever proceeds from God Almighty is not unique only on account of one quality but on account of every one of its qualities. Those who do not accept the Holy Qur'an as comprehensive of unlimited eternal truths and insights, do not value the Qur'an as it should be valued. A necessary sign for the recognition of the holy and true Word of God is that it should be unique in all its qualities, for we observe that whatever proceeds from God Almighty is unique and matchless even if it is only a grain of barley, and human powers cannot match it. Being matchless means being unlimited, that is to say, a thing can be matchless only when its wonders and qualities are unlimited and have no end. As we have just stated, this characteristic is found in everything created by God Almighty. For instance, if the wonders of a leaf of a tree are investigated for a thousand years, that period would come to an end, but the wonders of the leaf will not come to an end. That which has come into being through unlimited power, must comprise unlimited wonders and qualities. The verse, "Say, 'If every ocean becomes ink for the words of my Lord, surely, the ocean would be exhausted before the words of my Lord were exhausted, even though We brought the like thereof as further help;'"(18:110) supports this, for the whole of creation is Words of God.

Blaming the Holy Quran that it teaches violence and extremism in its 26 verses is due to the lack of understanding the true meaning of the verses.

Demanding the deletion of 26 verses of the Holy Quran and filing a petition in the public interest in this regard is not in the public interest but is tantamount to undermining the peace and security of the country. Blaming the Holy Quran that it teaches violence and extremism in its 26 verses is due to the lack of understanding the true meaning of the verses.*

The Ahmadiyya Muslim Jamaat India strongly condemns this allegation levelled at the Holy Quran and urges those who want to know the truth of these verses to come to us.

Ahmadiyya Muslim Jamaat has a clear belief that not a single chapter, verse, or even a punctuation mark can be omitted from the holy Quran. The teachings of the Qur'an are applicable at all times and in all places and guide a person on the right path.

The Qur'an is the word of God Almighty. It contains teachings that are for the welfare of mankind and it contains injunctions that are interfaith unity, compassion to humanity and are the guarantors of law and order and global peace.

Although there are extremist groups who seek to promote terrorism by misusing certain verses of the Qur'an for their self-interest and to sabotage the world, but imposing such allegations on Holy Quran cannot be justified in any way.

The Qur'an says that if one kills an innocent person, it is as if he has killed the whole of humanity. Islam has always given priority to the establishment of peace and security and has expressed its disapproval over taking of lives. By understanding the Qur'an and pondering on its verses with purity of heart and self-purification, God Himself explains the meaning of these verses to man.

Members of Waqf-e-Nau In the UK have Honour of a Virtual Meeting with the Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community

“Whether you are a medical student or studying any other field, concentrate in your studies and, alongside this, pay attention towards prayers. Increase your connection with Allah.” – Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad

On 28 February 2021, the World Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, the Fifth Khalifa (Caliph), His Holiness, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad held a virtual online meeting with male members of the Waqf-e-Nau Scheme from the United Kingdom.

His Holiness presided the meeting from his office in Islamabad, Tilford, whilst the Waqf-e-Nau members joined the meeting virtually.

The event started with the recitation of the Holy Quran, followed by a poem and sayings of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) and the Promised Messiah (peace be upon him).

In response, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad stated:

“A medical student should study regardless of whether he is a Waqf-e-Nau or not. You will not attain a degree if you do not study well. Indeed, whether you are a medical student or studying any other field, concentrate in your studies and, alongside this, pay attention towards prayers. Increase your connection with Allah. Offer your five daily prayers at their appointed time.”

“If an atheist studies and works hard whilst not believing in God, it does not matter; he will receive his recompense from Allah the Almighty for the efforts he puts into his studies. But an Ahmadi Muslim is someone who believes in Islam, in the existence of Allah the Almighty and has certainty that Allah helps him. So, along with his studies he will also have to prove that he has a connection with Allah the Almighty.”

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad بنظرنا العزيز
الذي لا اله الا الله
Khalifatul Masih V

“If you obey Allah, you will become His beloved. The love must be mutual. What did the companions of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) do? The companions loved the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him), according to the Holy Quran. In the Holy Quran it states in relation to the injunction that Muslims must be obedient to the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) and says that “Follow me: then will Allah love you.” So what is obedience? It is to follow the practice of the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) and to observe one’s prayers like the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) would observe his prayers, with complete devotion and concentration.”

ABOUT The Friday Sermon

Holy Quran, The source of guidance and salvation by Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad

Hudhur said MashaAllah our children generally finish their first reading of the Holy Qur'an at a very young age. Mothers who are more concerned for their children to finish their Qur'an early work very hard at it. Here as well as in other countries during Hudhur's trips children and parents are most eager to have Ameen ceremony conducted in Hudhur's presence. However, it is noticed that not so much concern and effort is put in repeat and constant reading of the Qur'an once its first reading is completed. When Hudhur asks about regular recitation of the Qur'an, Hudhur usually gets the response that reading is not done on a regular basis. Mothers and fathers should inculcate children to read the Qur'an regularly with due care and supervision. The parents' concerns should not be limited to finishing the first reading of the Qur'an, rather children should be continually supervised to read it regularly. Certainly it is very important to conclude the first reading of the Qur'an and some mothers achieve this with four or five year olds. No doubt, it is a very demanding task, but its continuous reading is even more important.

Hudhur said love of Qur'an will be instilled in the hearts of children when parents will inculcate its recitation and pondering over its meanings in them, when the Qur'an will be recited in the morning in every home. These days the time of [Fajr] Salat is late and those who go out to work can recite the Qur'an before Salat. This will fill a home with blessings and will have a very virtuous influence on children. Each one of us can observe that regular recitation of the Qur'an while reflecting on it will generate love for the sake of God between husband and wife and this in turn will make their children useful members of the Community. Hudhur said Ahmadis should make their full efforts in this regard. The Promised Messiah (on whom be peace) made great efforts to promote this. It was indeed the purpose of his advent to give the Qur'an the highest status. Honour of Qur'an should not be limited to, as it is by non-Ahmadis, being wrapped in beautiful cloth, placed on a beautiful shelf or in a box. Real love of the Qur'an is to make one's full effort to obey its commandments, to avoid what the Qur'an forbids and to employ one's full capacity and capability to fulfil what it commands. Its recitation should be done with fear of God.
