إِنَّمَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَرْتَابُوا وَجَاهَدُوا

The believers are only those who truly believe in Allah and His Messenger, and then doubt not [49:16]

وَلَا تَقُولُوا لِمَنْ أَلْقَى إِلَيْكُمُ السَّلَامَ لَسْتَ مُؤْمِنًا

and say not to anyone who greets you with the greeting of peace, 'Thou art not a believer.' [04:95]

SAYINGS OF THE Holy Prophet (SAW)

“Islam has been built on five [pillars]: testifying that there is none worthy of worship except Allah and that Muhammadsaw is the Messenger of Allah, the establishing the Salat (five daily prayers), paying the Zakat (obligatory charity), making the Hajj (pilgrimage) to the House, and fasting in Ramadan.”

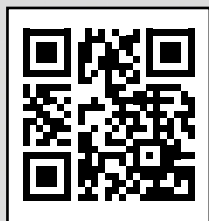

SAYINGS OF THE

Promised Messiah (as)

Defination of a Muslim by The Promised Messiah^(as)

HAZRAT MIRZA GHULAM
AHMAD QADIANI

We are Musalmans. We believe in the One God without a partner and in the Kalima, La Illah Ill-Allah. We believe in the Book of God, the Quran, in His Messenger Muhammad (peace on him and God's blessings) the Khatam Al-Anbiya. We believe in angels, the resurrection, hell and paradise. We observe the prescribed prayers and the fast. We turn to the Qibla for prayers and forbid ourselves what is forbidden by God and His Prophet and permit ourselves what is permitted. We add not a thing to the Sharia, nor subtract any thing from it. The Sharia is above change. Whatever has come down to us from the Holy Prophet (on whom peace and God's blessings), all that we accept, whether we understand or not and whether we can unravel its secrets and real meaning or not. We are believers with the Grace of God, and strict monotheist Muslims.

57th Jalsa Salana UK Concludes with an Inspirational Address

PRESS RELEASES | AUGUST 7, 2023

The World Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, the Fifth Khalifa (Caliph), His Holiness, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad concluded the 57th Annual Convention (Jalsa Salana) of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community on 30th July 2023 with an inspirational address

This was the first international full-scale Jalsa Salana since the Covid-19 pandemic and saw participants attending from 118 countries. The entire event was broadcast live on MTA International and streamed online.

Speaking of how Ahmadi Muslims should be proud of the fact that Islam comprehensively grants rights to all sections of society, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad said:

“We should never be shy whilst presenting the teachings of Islam to others and nor must we be under any inferiority complex. The laws and teachings of Islam are ever-lasting in nature. They are so comprehensive that they do not need to be changed in order to fulfil the needs of the time. Materialistic people make laws to protect what they consider human rights. After a while, they realise their weaknesses and begin campaigning against the laws they introduce, saying that the law is too extreme and its negative aspects outweigh its benefits, and so the law becomes a target of mockery. Therefore, we must inform the world about the true rights of people and guide the people towards how a peaceful society can be created whilst upholding the rights of different groups.”

Head of Ahmadiyya Muslim Community Addresses Ladies Session at Jalsa Salana Germany 2023

PRESS RELEASES | SEPTEMBER 4, 2023

On 2 September 2023, the World Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, the Fifth Khalifa (Caliph), His Holiness, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad, addressed the women's side of the Jalsa Salana Germany and spoke about the role and rights of women in Islam.

“It is incumbent upon women to partake in the propagation of faith” – Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad stated:

“Those Muslim ladies (during the period of early Islam) strived to portray the true image of Islam at every juncture of their lives – whether it pertained to obedience to Allah the Almighty, elevated levels of worship, domestic and societal responsibilities, educative responsibilities of children, physical and financial sacrifices, or opportunities of displaying courage and bravery for the sake of Islam. Thus, these women laid an exemplary foundation at every opportunity and step of their lives.”

Advising that Ahmadi Muslim women should serve that cause of Islam to their best of abilities, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad said:

“Instead of merely repeating the oath that we will give precedence to our faith over the world, each and every one of us should assess whether we are truly adhering to this oath not.”

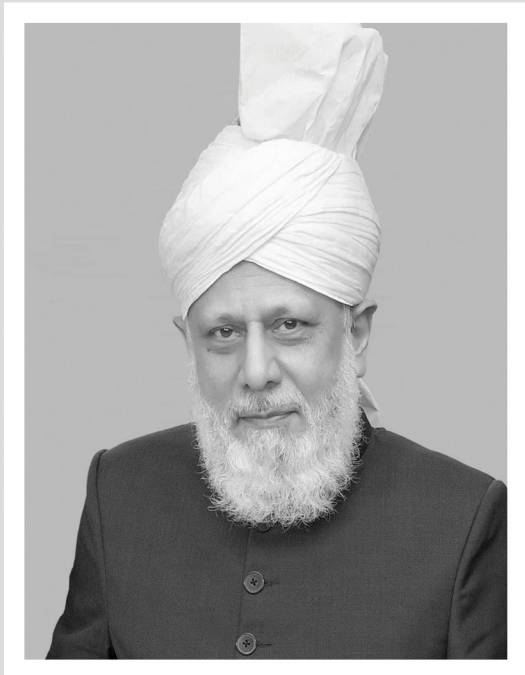

SAYINGS OF THE

Kahlifatul Masih V^(ab)

Displaying Compassion to All of Humanity.

22nd July 2023

HAZRAT MIRZA MASROOR
AHMAD

Always remember that serving humanity is a core objective for a true Muslim, as Islam instructs us to serve those in need and to show sympathy and compassion for all mankind. It was to fulfil this great task that Allah the Almighty sent the Promised Messiah (as). Thus, where the Promised Messiah (as) directed his followers to fulfil the rights of Allah the Almighty and His worship, he also repeatedly urged his followers to be ever ready and willing to serve mankind.

In this regard, on one occasion, the Promised Messiah (as) said, “Each day, every person should analyse himself and see to what extent he is concerned for the wellbeing of others and to what extent he shows love and compassion to his brothers.” The Promised Messiah (as) further stated, “Sympathy for others is a huge demand and responsibility that weighs heavy on mankind.”

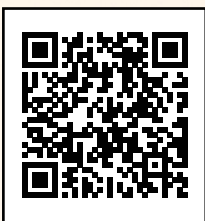

Friday Sermon

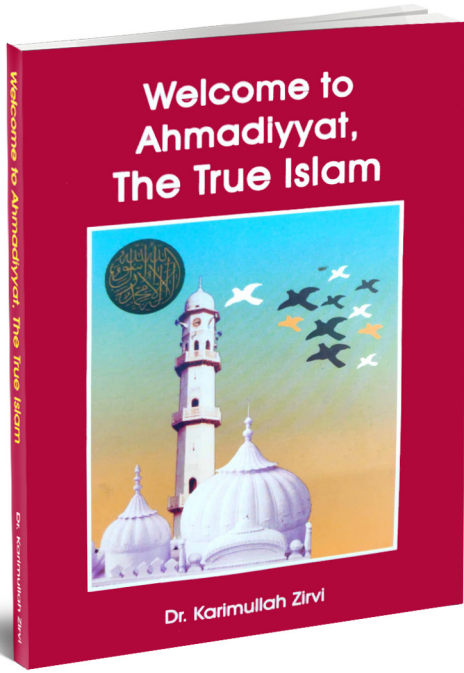

By Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad Vth Caliph

Depiction of the Quranic term 'Khaira Ummah' (best people)

History bears witness that for the first few centuries [of Islam] the Muslims proved to the world to be 'Khaira Ummah'. They governed in equitably over people of all religions, their governance was firm on justice and they spread the light of knowledge all over the world. They promoted good and made an effort to eradicate evil. They did all they could for the good of mankind. Later, materialistic people with ulterior motives seeped in and in spite of the Divine promise of safeguarding the teaching of the Qur'an, these people abandoned good and also influenced a large portion of people, depriving all of being 'Khaira Ummah'. God's promise to safeguard the Holy Qur'an was not a promise to merely preserve the incidents related therein; rather it was a promise to bring about people who would put its teachings in practice. Through their practices the glory of Islam was to be revived, the message of Islam was to be taken to the ends of the earth and equitable service of humanity at large was to take place. For this purpose, in accordance to His promise, God sent the true and ardent devotee of the Holy Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be on him), i.e. the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace), who brought back the faith of Islam from a remote juncture and once again the distinction of Muslims being 'Khaira Ummah' was restored with glory.*
