Ahmadiyya delegation India meets the Honorable Chief Minister of Punjab

The Ahmadiyya Community India expressed its gratitude towards the development program in Qadian by the government of Punjab

On 26th June 2015 the delegation of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Jama'at India met the Honorable Chief Minister of Punjab Shri Sardar Parkash Singh Badal in Chandigarh. The Honorable Chief Minister of Punjab welcomed the Ahmadiyya delegation and expressed his love and affection for the community.

The Ahmadiyya Muslim Jama'at expressed its gratitude towards the development project of the Government of Punjab in Qadian. It is worth mentioning that the government of Punjab is working in developing the sewerage system. This would make this town more beautiful and clean. The Government of Punjab has always helped the Jama'at in all its efforts to make this town clean and beautiful. The member of the Ahmadiyya Muslim community residing in any country of the world has respect and love for Qadian. May Allah bless this government with his reward.

The delegation of the Ahmadiyya Muslim community presented to the Honorable Chief Minister the Holy Quran, Life of the Prophet Muhammad (Peace be upon him) and other literatures of the community. The CM accepted this humble gift and encouraged the delegation.
